

Build <sup>The</sup> Truce

IWM London

International Day of Peace highlights

Friday 21, Saturday 22 and Sunday 23 September

On the galleries

The British Red Cross

Friday and Saturday, from 11.00am – 4.00pm

Join their team of humanitarian educators at the Red Cross jeep in the Atrium:

Interactive family storytelling sessions

Friday and Sunday, 11.30am

Tales of truce for younger visitors

Role player performances

Daily, 11.15am, 12.15pm, 1.15pm and 2.15pm

Short dramatic pieces performed against museum displays, specially commissioned for IWM's Peace Day programme

Keynote discussion

Saturday 5.00 -6.30pm

Starting in Neutral: What does neutrality mean or matter in 21st century humanitarian conflict response?

Panellists from the International Committee of the Red Cross, MSF, Conciliation Resources and International Alert discuss the problems and processes of neutrality in humanitarian conflict response and peace building. Chaired by Dr Tim Jacoby, University of Manchester's Humanitarian & Conflict Response Institute

Last chance to see the Build The Truce display

A film installation based on interviews with medics, civilians and ex-combatants, who have experienced the aftermath of conflict in Kosovo, Iraq, Northern Ireland, El Salvador and Sierra Leone.

Touchscreens and text give more information and interview material about those experiences of war, peace and complicated truces.

Build<sup>The</sup>Truce

IWM London

International Day of Peace highlights

Friday 21, Saturday 22 and Sunday 23 September

Cinema programme 20-minute film screenings and presentations

Our Voices International Alert's film about the lives of women in Burundi
Friday, 11.30am and Saturday, 12.30pm

Talking Borders A docudrama based on interviews with people living in West Africa, produced by Conciliation Resources. Introduced on Saturday by Janet
Friday, 12.00 and Saturday, 1.30pm

Peace on Friday – Mosques and the International Day of Peace
Film and presentation by the London Boroughs Faith Network
Saturday at 12.00

Build The Truce IWM's eyewitness interviews with medics, aid workers and ex-combatants from post conflict zones including Iraq, El Salvador and Northern Ireland
Friday, 2.30pm and Saturday, 3.30pm

When the Dust Settles Animated short on the impact of depleted uranium weapons produced by the International Coalition to Ban Uranium Weapons and Pax Christi. Introduced by ICBUW's Doug Weir
Saturday, 2.30pm

Laws of War British Red Cross staff introduce this multimedia presentation
Friday, 12.30pm and 1.30pm; Saturday, 1.00pm and 2.00pm

Introducing MSF Head of Programmes Jeroen Jansen introduces MSF's work and describes his own experience in the field
Saturday, 3.00pm

