

Build^{The}Truce

IWM North

International Day of Peace highlights
21, 22 and 23 September

In the Main Exhibition Space

Mines Advisory Group Join a member of the MAG team near the Legacy Silo to find out more about the Nobel prize-winning organisation's work in post-conflict zones. Followed by a powerful presentation in the Learning Studio
Friday, 11.30

Interactive family storytelling sessions tales of truce for younger visitors
Friday and Sunday, 11.30

Role player performances short dramatic pieces performed against the backdrop of large artefacts, specially commissioned for IWM's Peace Day programme
Friday, Saturday and Sunday 11.15, 12.15, 1.15 and 2.15

A Closer Look: Truce walk-and-talk through the permanent collections, with a focus on truce and conflict resolution
Friday, Saturday and Sunday, 2.15

Women and Peace in History Historian Alison Ronan shares her knowledge of the Women's International League (Friday), and the Greenham Common protests (Sunday), in fascinating short talks at the Women Silo
Friday, 12.30 and Sunday, 1.30

Build^{The}Truce

IWM North

International Day of Peace highlights
21, 22 and 23 September

Build The Truce The Big Picture Show 360degree multimedia show, projected across the entire Main Exhibition Space.

A soundtrack of eyewitness interviews set against images and footage of the aftermath of conflict in Kosovo, Iraq, Northern Ireland, El Salvador and Sierra Leone.

Daily, 2.00pm

Friday September 21: an additional screening at 12.01pm to follow a one-minute silence to mark the International Day of Peace 2012.

Film programme 20-minute film screenings in the Learning Studio.

- Our Voices International Alert's film about women in Burundi
Friday, 11.00; Saturday, 11.30; Sunday, 3.15
- Talking Borders a docudrama based on hundreds of interviews with people living in the Mano River area, undertaken by Conciliation Resources
Saturday and Sunday, 1.30
- Build The Truce IWM's eyewitness interviews with medics, aid workers and ex-combatants from post conflict zones including Iraq, El Salvador and Northern Ireland
Friday, 2.30; Saturday, 3.30
- When the Dust Settles Animated short on the impact of depleted uranium weapons and the international campaign against them, produced by the International Coalition to Ban Uranium Weapons and Pax Christi.
Sunday, 12.30

